2. Each purchaser shall, immediately after a lot has been knocked down to him, pay as earnest money a sum of rupees five and sign his name opposite the number and specification of the lot bought by him, in a book provided for the purpose. Such payment and signature shall be held as admission on his part of having bought such lot and of having accepted the terms of sale as herein specified.

3. Immediately after the sale, each purchaser will be furnished with a memo showing the total amount due by him and with a chellan to pay immediately twenty-five per cent of such amount into the nearest Taluk Treasury before the close of the fifth day from the date of sale; a receipt for this money will be granted by the Treasury Officer and must be presented to the Forest Officer before the close of the 8th day from the day of sale. Should any purchaser fail to comply with this rule, the Forest Officer shall be at liberty to resell all or any portion of the timber purchased by such defaulter, who shall be required to make good any loss, but shall not participate in any profit accruing from such resale. The amount due by such defaulter shall be recovered from him as a revenue demand.

Note.—For the convenience of the purchasers, the quarter deposit or the whole of the sale amount will be received and acknowledged by the officer conducting the sale, if tendered on the spot at the time of sale.

4. The whole quantity purchased by each purchaser must be paid for within thirty days from the date of sale, failing which the earnest and deposit moneys already paid in shall be forfeited to Government and the timber not paid for shall be resold. Moneys due may be paid into the Treasury of the taluk in which the depot is situated, but into no other except in cases where the purchasers are permitted to pay into any other Government Treasury in accordance with the chellans issued to him.

5. No timber shall be delivered to any purchaser until it has been paid for in full.

6. No timber can be removed from the depot till a permit to remove timber signed by the Forest Officer in charge of the depot shall have been obtained.

7. Timber paid for may be removed at any time within thirty days from the date of sale or within such further period not exceeding ninety days from the date of sale as may be fixed by the Forest Officer as the circumstances of each case may require, without payment of rent; but if left in the depot longer than ninety days from date of sale such timber will remain at the risk of the purchaser, and further shall be charged with depot rent at Rs. 6-4-0 per cent per annum, on the sale amount from the date of sale. If the timber be not removed within six months from the date of sale, the same shall, after ten days' notice to the purchaser, be sold by public auction for the recovery of rent and costs, etc.

8. Timber logs should be duly measured by the purchaser prior to removal from the depot; complaints regarding short measurements will not be entertained after the removal.

9. Interest at Rs. 6¼ per cent per annum is leviable from the date of sale on payments overdue.

10. Defaulters on account of previous sales will not be permitted to bid.

11. Timber belonging to the defaulters on account of previous sales will also be resold.
